He took with him his fiancée, who was now obviously pregnant. And while they were there, the time came for the baby to be born. She gave birth to her first-born, a son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.
That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep. Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terrified. But the angel reassured them. "Don't be afraid!", he said. "I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people." Luke 2:5+

Consider Jesus. Know Jesus. Learn what kind of Person it is you say you trust and love and worship. Soak in the shadow of Jesus. Saturate your soul with the ways of Jesus. Watch Him.
Listen to Him. Stand in awe of Him. Let Him overwhelm you with the way He is. John Piper

There are two hundred and fifty-six names given in the Bible for the Lord Jesus Christ, and I suppose this was because He was infinitely beyond all that any one name could express.

Billy Sunday

The impression of Jesus which the Gospels give is not so much one of deity reduced as of divine capacities restrained.

J. L. Packer

Jesus' coming is the final and unanswerable proof that God cares.

William Barclay

The modern intelligent mind, which has had its horizons widened in dozens of different ways, has got to be shocked afresh by the audacious central fact that as a sober matter of history, God became one of us.

J. B Phillips

One day two men were talking as they saw a woman walking down the road. One of the men said, "That's Mrs.
Jones. She always has something good to say about everyone." The other man decided to test her, so when she got close he hollered, "Mrs. Jones, what do you think about the devil?" She thought for a second and answered, "He sure is busy isn't he?" You can find something good to say about almost anyone. Encourage them
