Isaiah had spoken of John when he said, "He is a voice shouting in the wilderness. Prepare the way for the LORD'S coming! Clear the road for him! The valleys will be filled, and the mountains and hills made level. The curves will be straightened, and the rough places made smooth. And the peoples will see the salvation sent from God. Luke 3:4+

At His baptism Jesus Christ embraced His mission and then heard His Father say, "I'm proud of You, My Son." The transcendent cause was blessed, affirmed, and "spiked" by the Father's vocal affirmation. If He held any doubts about His course in life, they were vanished in that one instance.

Every temptation He would encounter and all of the hardships He would endure were immediately put into perspective. He embraced His mission, and He was affirmed by His Father, investing the moment with reverential awe. Robert Lewis

Christ, because He was the only Man who never yielded to temptation, is also the only Man who knows to the full what temptation means.

C. S. Lewis

The Word, watchfulness, prayerfulness. That's it. No magic. That's how you deal with [temptation]. Pour the Word in. Stay alert. Understand what's going on around you by way of temptation. Be discerning and fall prostrate before God and cry out for His power.
That's the path to triumph. Then you can rise and walk to face the foe as [Jesus did].

John MacArthur

Ingathering. Only one more day to go! Please make sure cans and badges are returned to me as soon as possible after the completion date, as delay causes problems. Thank you

The reason you do what you do is all important.
There is an old fable about a dog that boasted of his ability as a runner. One day he chased a rabbit and failed to catch it. The other dogs ridiculed him on account of his previous boasting. His reply was, "You must remember that the rabbit was running for his life, while I was only running for my dinner." The incentive is all-important.
