One day Jesus left the crowds to pray alone. Only his disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do people say I am?" "Well," they replied, "Some say Joh the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say that you are one of the ancient prophets risen from the dead." Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Messiah sent from God." Jesus warned his disciples not to tell anyone who he was. Luke 9:18+

O think, that he who was master of all heaven's majesty came down to be the victim of all man's misery! C. H. Spurgeon

The impression of Jesus which the Gospels give is not so much one of deity reduced as of divine capacities restrained. J. L. Packer

When He took on Him the form of a servant in our nature, He became what He had never been before, but He did not cease to be what He always had been in His divine nature. He who is God cannot ever cease to be God. John Owen

When God becomes a Man and lives as a creature among His own creatures in Palestine, then indeed His life is one of supreme self-sacrifice and leads to Calvary. C. S. Lewis

Nothing that we are and nothing that we can do enters in the slightest measure into the ground of our acceptance with God. Jesus did it all. B. B. Warfield

Ingathering. This may be finished for another year, but I still need the outstanding cans returned, together with permits. We are still well short of last years' total, having so far reached £ 1826.68 About £260 being from Tesco bag-packing

Some years ago, a cartoon appeared. It pictured two farmers in Kentucky, standing in a field as snow fell softly. One turned to the other & asked, "Anything exciting happen today?" "Nah, nothing exciting," said the other farmer. "Oh, there was a baby born over at Tom Lincoln's home, but nothing exciting ever happens around here." But that baby born in the home of Tom Lincoln one day became the President of the United States. He changed the course of history & liberated the slaves. One life can make a difference!
