One day Jesus called together his twelve disciples and gave them power and authority to cast out all demons and to heal all diseases. Then he sent them out to tell everyone about the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick. "Take nothing for your journey, ", he instructed them "Don't take a walking stick, a traveller's bag, food, money, or even a change of clothes. Wherever you go stay in the same house until you leave town.
And if a town refuses to welcome you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate. Luke 9:1+

Christianity without discipleship is always Christianity without Christ. Dietrich Bonhoeffer

No matter how high the powers of reason, no matter how deep the intellect, no one can discover God's secret messages without paying the cost of true discipleship. Winkie Pratney

We have suffered from the preaching of cheap grace. Grace is free, but it is not cheap. People will take anything that is free, but they are not interested in discipleship. They will take Christ as Saviour but not as Lord. Vance Havner

Jesus used a show, tell, deploy, and supervise method of training. After calling the disciples he took them along with him, teaching and healing the sick as he went. Then, after he thought the disciples had seen and learned enough to try for themselves, he then commissioned, empowered, instructed, and sent them out to do the same things. John Wimber

Ingathering.

There are still a few cans outstanding, please make sure they are returned by next week at the latest. You can still make donations to help us reach last years' figure.

John Wesley was a great preacher, but not everybody, of course, liked him. One day as Mr.
Wesley was out walking, he was on a narrow path when he met a man who didn't like him. One of the men would have to step aside to allow the other to pass. The man came charging ahead saying, "I never make way for fools." John quickly stepped aside saying, "I always do."
