"And so I tell you, keep on asking and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking and you will find. Keep on knocking and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives. Everyone who seeks finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. You fathers—if your children ask you for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? Or if they ask for an egg do you give them a scorpion? Of course not!" Luke 11:9+

The most eloquent prayer is the prayer through hands that heal and bless. Billy Graham

While others still slept, He went away to pray and to renew His strength in communion with His Father. He had need of this, otherwise He would not have been ready for the new day. The holy work of delivering souls demands constant renewal through fellowship with God. Andrew Murray

His nature is such that our often coming does not tire him. The whole burden of the whole life of every man may be rolled on to God and not weary him, though it has wearied man. Henry Ward Beecher

By prayer, the ability is secured to feel the law of love, to speak according to the law of love, and to do everything in harmony with the law of love. E.M. Bounds

-----

Jesus' pattern prayer, which is both crutch, road, and walking lesson for the spiritually lame like ourselves, tells us to start with God: for God matters infinitely more than we do. J. L. Packer

In 1721, a wealthy Irishman offered to adopt Charles Wesley and make him his legal heir. The 13-year-old boy refused the offer, choosing to continue his way through school under very difficult circumstances. This turned out to be one of the most momentous decisions of life. The boy who was adopted in place of Charles became the grandfather of the Duke of Wellington who defeated Napoleon. Whereas the young Wesley achieved immortal fame through his hymns
