As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. When he heard the noise of the crowd going past , he asked what was happening.
They told him that Jesus the Nazarene was going by.
So he began shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" "Be quiet!", the people in front yelled at him. But he only shouted the louder, " Son of David, have mercy on me!" When Jesus heard him, he stopped and asked that the man be brought to him. As thje man came near, Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" "Lord", He said, " I want to see." Luke 18:35+

Christ never was in a hurry. There was no rushing forward, no anticipating, no fretting over what might be. Each day's duties were done as each day brought them, and the rest was left with God.

Mary Slessor

God has given us prayer as a wartime walkie-talkie so that we can call headquarters for everything we need as the kingdom of Christ advances in the world. Prayer gives us the significance of front-line forces, and gives God the glory of a limitless Provider. The one who gives the power gets the glory. Thus prayer safeguards the supremacy of God in missions while linking us with endless grace for every need.

John Piper

The only way the corporate Body of Christ will fulfill the mission Christ has given it is for individual Christians to have a vision for fulfilling that mission personally.

David Jeremiah

We see in Him, all the human passions in the highest perfection. His joys were grave, His griefs were just. His gentleness and His severity, His holiness and His humanity – were in perfect harmony with each other. He manifested great tenderness, and genuine affection, and sensibility to human woe on all occasions.

John Fawcett

A missionary and his family were forced to camp outside on a hill. They were carrying money and they were fearful that thieves might rob them. After spending time in prayer, they finally fell asleep. Several months later, a man that had been injured was taken to the mission hospital. He asked the missionary if on that special night they had soldiers guarding them. The man said to him, "We intended to rob you, but we were afraid of the twenty-seven soldiers."

When the missionary returned to his homeland, he shared this story with his church. One of the members responded, "We had a prayer meeting that night, and I took roll. There were just twenty-seven of us present."
