Then Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people selling animals for sacrifices. He said to them," The Scriptures declare that , My Temple will be a house of prayer, but you have made it into a den of thieves." After that He taught daily in the Temple, but the leading priests, the teachers of the religious law and the other leaders of the people began planning how to kill him. But they could think of nothing, because all the people hung on every word he said.

Jesus produced mainly three effects: hatred, terror, adoration. There was no trace of people expressing mild approval.                      C.S. Lewis

Christ is the humility of God embodied in human nature; the Eternal Love humbling itself, clothing itself in the garb of meekness and gentleness, to win and serve and save us.                      Andrew Murray

The impression of Jesus which the Gospels give is not so much one of deity reduced as of divine capacities restrained.                      J. L. Packer

Jesus knew how to rest as well as how to work. Though there was constant haste in His life, there was no hurry; though there was much pressure, there was no confusion. Nothing was more conspicuous in Him than His unvarying dignity, calmness and self-possession.
James Stalker

I see Christ's heart yearning over poor sinners--not poor sinners' hearts yearning after Christ.    G. Wigram

It has been noticed that some mobile phones interfere with the microphone system in the Church.
We would therefore request that mobiles are turned off, or at least put in 'Aeroplane Mode' during the services. Thank you

A.D. 110. Ignatius, overseer of the church in Antioch, was arrested and sent to Rome for preaching Christ. Facing martyrdom, he wrote this to the church at Rome.
"Now I begin to be a disciple. I care for nothing of visible or invisible things so that I may but win Christ. Let fire and the cross, let the companies of wild beasts, let breaking of bones and tearing of limbs, let the grinding of the whole body, and all the malice of the devil, come upon me; be it so, only may I win Christ Jesus."

When he was sentenced to be fed to lions, and could even hear their roaring, he said, "I am the wheat of Christ; I am going to be ground with the teeth of wild beasts that I may be found pure bread."
