A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. "If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean," he said. Moved with compassion Jesus reached out and touched him, "I am willing," he said, "Be healed." /Instantly the leprosy disappeared and the man was healed. Then Jesus sent him on his way with a stern warning, "Don't tell anyone about this, Instead go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been cleansed of leprosy. "Mark1:40+

Preaching is to much avail, but practice is far more effective. A godly life is the strongest argument you can offer the sceptic. Hosea Ballou Walking with God down the avenue of prayer we acquire something of His likeness, and unconsciously we become witnesses to others of His beauty and His grace. E.M. Bounds

We have no right to be silent; even when confession of Christ leads to persecution and suffering we must bear witness. S. S. Singh

Doctrine is useless if it is not accompanied by a holy life. It is worse than useless; it does positive harm.
Something of "The image of Christ" must be seen and observed by others in our private life, and habits, and character, and doings. J. C. Ryle

It is unfortunate that we have adopted such a phrase as "foreign missionaries." We are all missionaries, and we are all pilgrims and strangers, foreigners in this world. T.J. Bach

I do not believe anyone ever yet humbly, genuinely, thoroughly gave himself to Christ without some other finding Christ through him. Phillips Brooks

. Francois Fenelon was the court clergy for King Louis XIV of France in the 17th century. One Sunday when the king and his attendants arrived at the chapel for the regular service, no one else was there but the preacher. King Louis demanded, "What does this mean?" Fenelon replied, "I had it published that you would not come to church today, in order that your Majesty might see who serves God in truth and who flatters the king."
