But now the people believed Philip's message of Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. As a result many men and women were baptised. Then Simon, himself, believed and was baptised. He began following Philip wherever he went, and was amazed by the signs and great miracles Philip performed. When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had accepted God's message, they sent Peter and John there. As soon as they arrived they prayed for these new believers to receive the Holy Spirit. Acts 8:12+

No man is interested in a piece of good news unless he has the consciousness of needing it; no man is interested in an offer of salvation unless he knows that there is something from which he needs to be saved. It is quite useless to ask a man to adopt the Christian view of the gospel unless he first has the Christian view of sin. Gresham Machen

It is not the main part of [the evangelist] to tell men to make their peace with God, but to tell them that God has made peace with the world. At bottom, the Gospel is not good advice, but good news. All the good advice it gives is summed up in this - Receive the good news!
James Denney

We do not fail in our evangelism if we faithfully tell the gospel to someone who is not subsequently converted; we fail only if we do not faithfully tell the gospel at all.
Mark Dever

Evangelism is not simply a matter of bringing individuals to personal faith, though of course that remains central to the whole enterprise. It is a matter of confronting the world with the good, but deeply disturbing, news of a different way of living...the way of love. N.T. Wright

Did you ever wonder why a Jaffa Cake is a Jaffa Cake and not a Jaffa Biscuit? Apparently HM Customs and Excise wondered the same thing, especially when cakes are VAT free and biscuits incur V.A.T, so given the popularity of Jaffa Cakes the government decided to re-categorise the Jaffa Cake as a biscuit and lay claim to millions of pounds of McVities' money. The matter was settled however by a VAT tribunal in a very expensive case. McVities won the case, primarily because biscuits are hard when fresh and soft when stale whereas cakes are soft when fresh and hard when stale; Jaffa Cakes, of course, fall into the latter category. Well, our hearts are rather like a cake, made to be soft and tender, but left to their own devices they will naturally harden.
