The LORD gave me another message. He said," Go and shout this message in Jerusalem. This is what the LORD says: I remember how eager you were to please me, as a young bride long ago, how you loved me and followed me even through the barren wilderness. In those days Israel was holy to the LORD, the first of his children.. All who harmed his children were declared guilty, and disaster fell on them. I, the LORD have spoken" Listen to the word of the LORD people of Jacob—all you families of Israel. This is what the LORD says: "What did your ancestors find wrong with me that led them to stray so far from me? They worshipped worthless idols, only to become worthless themselves.
They did not ask, 'Where is the LORD who brought us to safety out of Egypt?'" Jer. 2:1+

Men never do evil so completely and cheerfully as when they do it from religious conviction.

Blaise Pascal

Christian hope rests upon the fact not that evil can be ignored, or that it will simply fade away, but that it has been judged at the cross David Wells

Man...does not do evil against his will, under pressure, as though he were taken by the scruff of the neck and dragged into it, like a thief...being dragged off against his will to punishment; but he does it spontaneously and voluntarily. And this willingness or volition is something which he cannot in his own strength eliminate, restrain or alter. Martin Luther

We may often be baffled by the reality of the power of evil as it is manifest in our circumstances. Sometimes that power seems so overwhelming that we are unable to praise within the circumstances of our life. It is then that we do well to recall the words of the Apostle Paul.
When writing amidst difficult circumstances to the Church at Ephesus he could say, 'Giving thanks always for all things unto God.' He had come to know that no matter what the source of the evil, if we are in Christ, and surrounded by Him as by an atmosphere, all evil has to pass through Him before it comes to us.
Robert Norris

When Mr. Moody was in London during one of his famous evangelistic tours, several British clergymen visited him. They wanted to know how and why this poorly educated American was so effective in winning thronges of people to Jesus Christ. Moody took the three men to the window of his hotel room and asked each in turn what he saw. One by one, the men described the people in the park below. Then Moody looked out the window with tears rolling down his cheeks. "What do you see, Mr. Moody?" asked one of the men.
"I see countless thousands of souls that will one day spend eternity in hell if they do not find the Saviour
