Then all the guerrilla leaders, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest approached Jeremiah the prophet. They said, 'Please pray to the LORD your God for us. As you can see we are only a tiny remnant compared with what we were before. Pray that the LORD your God will show us what to do and where to go.'

"All Right," Jeremiah replied. "I will pray to the LORD your God, as you have asked, and I will tell you everything he says, I will hide nothing from you." Then they said to Jeremiah, 'May the Lord your God be a faithful witness against us if we refuse to obey whatever he tells us to do! Whether we like it or not, we will obey the LORD our God to whom we are sending you with our plea. For if we obey him, everything will turn out well for us.' Ten days later the Lord gave his reply to Jeremiah. Jer. 42 1+.

Although we have responsibilities to others, we are primarily accountable to God. It is before him that we stand, and to him that one day we must give an account. We should not therefore rate human opinion too highly, becoming depressed when criticized and elated when flattered. John Stott

All of us have wondered at times why God doesn't do more to fix our problems. But our human eyes often fail to see that God isn't rushing to change our circumstances because he is concerned with a much more serious problem – our character. While you struggle with the woes of this world, God's main occupation is preparing you for the world to come.
Andy Stanley.

It is the absence of the knowledge of God and man's refusal to obey Him that lies at the root of every problem that besets us. Billy Graham

Whatever man loves, that is his god. For he carries it in his heart; he goes about with it night and day; he sleeps and wakes with it, be it what it may – wealth or self, pleasure or renown. Martin Luther

When Bible believers take a stand against false doctrine, they are accused of rocking the boat. It is better that belief should rock the boat than that unbelief should wreck the boat. Vance Havner

After only his third week as the Pastor of the little country church, an Elder came to the church office on Monday morning to visit the young minister. It seems the pastor had preached the same sermon three weeks in a row. The Elder asked, "How long do you intend to use that same sermon?" --- Smiling, the young pastor answered, "Until everyone hears, understands and acts accordingly."
