The man lay with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, "With the help of the LORD I have brought a man into being."
Afterwards she had another child, his brother Abel. Abel was a shepherd and Cain a tiller of the soil. The day came when Cain brought some of the produce of the soil as a gift to the LORD. : and Abel brought some of the first-born of his flock, the fat portions of them. The LORD received Abel and his gift with favour, but Cain and his gift He did not receive. Cain was very angry and his face fell. Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you so angry and cast down? If you do well you are accepted; if not, sin is a demon crouching at the door. It shall be eager for you, and you will be mastered by it." Gen. 4:1+

God, having placed good and evil in our power, has given us full freedom of choice; He does not keep back the unwilling, but embraces the willing. John Chrysostom

Many of our troubles occur because we base our choices on unreliable authorities; culture ("everyone is doing it"), tradition ("we've always done it"), reason ("it seems logical"), or emotion ("it just felt right"). Rick Warren

We have little control over the circumstances of life. We can't control the weather or the economy, and we can't control what other people say about or do to us. There is only one area where we have control--we can rule the kingdom inside. The heart of every problem is the problem in the heart. Warren Wiersbe

The unceasing activity of the Creator, whereby in overflowing bounty and goodwill, He upholds His creatures in ordered existence, guides and governs all events, circumstances, and free acts of angels and men, and directs everything to its appointed goal, for His own glory. J. L. Packer

Often times God demonstrates His faithfulness in adversity by providing for us what we need to survive. He does not change our painful circumstances. He sustains us through them. Charles Stanley Circumstances which we have resented, situations which we have found desperately difficult, have all been the means in the hands of God of driving the nails into the self-life which so easily complains. Alan Redpath

No matter what our circumstance, we can find a reason to be thankful. David Jeremiah

There is the story of a boy who was walking with his father along a lonely road at night, carrying a lantern. He told his father he was afraid, because the lantern showed such a little way ahead. The father answered, "That is so, but if you walk straight on, you will find that the light will reach to the end of the journey." God often gives us light for only a little way ahead, but He always gives at least that, and so He always gives us light enough for the whole journey.
