The next day the council of all the rulers and elders and teachers of religious law met in Jerusalem. Annas , the high priest was there along with Caiaphas , John, Alexander, and other relatives of the high priest. They brought in the two disciples and demanded, "By what power, or in whose name, have you done this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers and elders of our people, are we being questioned today because we have done a good deed for a crippled man? Do you want to know how he was healed?
Let me clearly state to all of you and to all the people of Israel that he was healed by the powerful name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene , the man you crucified but whom God raised from the dead. For Jesus is the one referred to in the Scriptures, where it says, 'The stone that you builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.'" Acts 4:5+

Pride is the king of vices...it is the first of the pallbearers of the soul...other vices destroy only their opposite virtues, as wantonness destroys chastity; greed destroys temperance; anger destroys gentleness; but pride destroys all virtues. Fulton Sheen

Stop! Right now! Take a deep breath in and exhale.
Remind yourself that you are loved, you are cherished, you have value. Remind yourself that nothing that anyone does or thinks or says to you will diminish that value.
Remind yourself that every person you meet today is loved by God just as much as you are and is worthy of respect and is worthy of being seen as a person of value.
Now continue to make decisions today based on those truths. Katherine Walden

We have no right to be silent; even when confession of Christ leads to persecution and suffering we must bear witness. Sadhu Sundar Singh

Many times men criticize us when we actually are following the Lord. Outside praise or criticism is inconsequential; but the testimony of our quickened conscience is momentous. Watchman Nee

As no good is done, or spoken, or thought by any man without the assistance of God, working in and with those that believe in him, so there is no evil done, or spoken, or thought without the assistance of the devil, who worketh with strong though secret power in the children of unbelief.
All the works of our evil nature are the work of the devil.
John Wesley

Hudson Taylor: Missionary to China. Saw many come to Christ during one period of time. Many had heard the gospel message and had been newly saved. One particular older Chinese man came up to Taylor and said with joy in his heart, 'How long have you had this wonderful news in your land?' 'Well we have had it there for hundreds of years.' 'Hundreds of years? You have had it for hundreds of years and are just now coming and sharing? My father searched for the truth all his life and died without finding it. Why did you not come sooner?'
