Write this letter to the angel of the church in Thyatira.
This is the message from the Son of God, whose eyes are like flames of fire, whose feet are like polished bronze. I know all the things you do. I have seen your love, your faith, your service, and your patient endurance. And I can see your constant improvement in all these things. But I have this complaint against you. You are permitting that woman—that Jezebel who calls herself a prophet—to lead my servants astray. She teaches them to commit sexual sin and eat food offered to idols. I gave her time to repent, but she does not want to turn away from her immorality. Therefore, I will throw her on a bed of suffering, and those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly unless they repent and turn away from her evil deeds. Rev. 2: 18+

There is a false sense of self-protection in harbouring an offence. It keeps you from seeing your own character flaws, because the blame is deferred to another.

John Bevere

Evil is real – and powerful. It has to be fought, not explained away, not fled. And God is against evil all the way. So each of us has to decide where we stand, how we're going to live our lives. We can try to persuade ourselves that evil doesn't exist; live for ourselves and wink at evil. We can say that it isn't so bad after all, maybe even try to call it fun by clothing it in silks and velvets. We can compromise with it, keep quiet about it and say it's none of our business. Or we can work on God's side, listen for His orders on strategy against the evil, no matter how horrible it is, and know that He can transform it.

Catherine Marshall

It may be difficult to understand why a test comes our way, but we must never forget that the test is accomplishing refining and purification. Billy Graham

You cannot tailor-make the situations in life but you can tailor-make the attitudes to fit those situations. Zig Ziglar

I am only one, but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; and because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do something that I can do.

Helen Keller

Many are called, few are chosen, but fewer still are faithful. These are the overcomers spoken of ten times in the book of Revelation. They are disciples of Jesus who have not only been accepted by God but who have been tested by Him through many circumstances and who have been approved by Him. Zac Poonen

Two men came up after the end of a Moody crusade with arms around each other's shoulders and laughing, 'Mr. Moody, you won't believe this. We have worked with one another for 13 years and we didn't know that we were both Christians until we both showed up at your crusade'. Moody replied, 'That is some of the worst news I have ever heard. I don't think either one of you is really saved if you can be together for 13 years and it not be known what your convictions are about Jesus Christ'
