Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the reign of King Herod. About that time some wise men from some eastern lands arrived in Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose, and we have come to worship him.' King Herod was deeply disturbed when he heard this, as was everyone in Jerusalem. He called a meeting of the leading priests and teachers of religious law and asked, 'Where is the Messiah supposed to be born?'
"In Bethlehem in Judea," they said, "for this is what the prophet wrote: 'And you oh Bethlehem in the land of Judah, are not least among the ruling cities of Judah, for a ruler will come from you who will be the shepherd for my people Israel.'" Matt. 2:1+

The family is the test of freedom; because the family is the only thing that the free man makes for himself and by himself. G.K. Chesterton

If you read history you will find that the Christians who did most for the present world were precisely those who thought most of the next. C.S. Lewis

Our redemption through the suffering of Christ is that deeper love within us which not only frees us from slavery to sin, but also secures for us the true liberty of the children of God, in order that we might do all things out of love rather than out of fear – love for him that has shown us such grace that no greater can be found. Peter Abelard

As we face the cross, then, we can say to ourselves both, "I did it, my sins sent him there," and "He did it, his love took him there." John R. Stott

There are two hundred and fifty-six names given in the Bible for the Lord Jesus Christ, and I suppose this was because He was infinitely beyond all that any one name could express. Billy Sunday

Jesus knew how to rest as well as how to work.
Though there was constant haste in His life, there was no hurry; though there was much pressure, there was no confusion. Nothing was more conspicuous in Him than His unvarying dignity, calmness and self-possession. James Stalker
