From then on Jesus began to preach, "Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom Of Heaven is near.
One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee", he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew—throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. Jesus called out to them, "Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people." And they left their nets at once and followed him.
A little way further up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, repairing their nets. And he called them too. They immediately followed him, leaving their nets and their father behind.

"What's in it for me?" man says about obeying God. In this context how selfish and sinful that question is. The living God has spoken, and that is enough. The Saviour who shed his blood to save us from hell has told us how we should live, and that is enough. The loving Holy Spirit who made us alive has moved holy men to speak a word to us, and that is enough. We obey God because that glorifies God and there is nothing more than that. Geoff Thomas
[The natural life] knows that if the spiritual life gets hold of it, all its self-centredness- and self-will are going to be killed and it is ready to fight tooth and nail to avoid that. C.S. Lewis
Holiness is an unselfing of ourselves. F. W. Faber
Those who determine not to put self to death will never see the will of God fulfilled in their lives. Those who ought to become the light of the world must necessarily burn and become less and less. By denying self, we are able to win others. Sadu Sundar Singh
If thou wouldst be justified, acknowledge thine injustice. He that confesses his sin begins his journey toward salvation. He that is sorry for it, mends his pace. He that forsakes it, is at his journey's end. Francis Quarles
You cannot repent too soon, because you do not know how soon it may be too late. Thomas Fuller

Ingathering.
Only one day to go!
Further supplies are available, so if you want more, please let me know. Please use the donation envelopes for all donations, whether Gift Aid or not, as ADRA is now making a distinction between the monies collected.. Please help yourself –they are on the desk.
Please make sure that all cans , permits, etc. are returned to me as soon as possible after the campaign ends.
