Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out all the people buying and selling animals for sacrifice. He knocked over the tables of the money-changers and the chairs of those selling doves. He said to them, " My Temple will be called a house of prayer, but you have turned it into a den of thieves!" The blind and the lame came to him in the Temple and he healed them. The leading priests and the teachers of religious law saw these wonderful miracles and heard even the children in the Temple shouting, "Praise God for the Son of David." But the leaders were indignant. They asked Jesus, "Do you hear what these children are saying?" "Yes," Jesus replied, "Haven't you ever read the Scriptures? For they say, 'You have taught children and infants to give you praise.'" Matt. 21:12+

Preacher: Dr. Brian Phillips

A man can accept what Christ has done without knowing how it works: indeed, he certainly would not know how it works until he has accepted it.

C. S. Lewis

And now let me address all of you, high and low, rich and poor, one with another, to accept of mercy and grace while it is offered to you; Now is the accepted time, now is the day of salvation; and will you not accept it, now it is offered unto you?

George Whitefield

Saving faith and real converting grace will always produce some conformity to the image of Jesus.

J. C. Ryle

Since no man is excluded from calling upon God the gate of salvation is open to all. There is nothing else to hinder us from entering, but our own unbelief

John Calvin

Is it not wonderful news to believe that salvation lies outside ourselves?

Martin Luther

Saving us is the greatest and most concrete demonstration of God's love, the definitive display of His grace throughout time and eternity.

David Jeremiah

The only thing of our very own which we contribute to our salvation is the sin which makes it necessary.

William Temple

GRACE-God's Riches At Christ's Expense.

Christ's death to sin and His satisfaction of God's justice opened the way for the reign of grace in our lives.

Jerry Bridges

The story is told of a little girl who was touring a large, ornate cathedral which had "saints" pictured in the elaborate stained glass windows. She asked her father, "Daddy, who are those people?" And he responded, "Honey, those are saints, do you know what a saint is?" She thought for a moment and then said, "Why, they must be people who let the light shine through."
