Down with you, sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon. Down from your throne, sit on the ground, daughter of the Chaldeans; never again shall men call ye soft-skinned and delicate. Take up the millstone, grind meal, uncover your tresses; strip off your skirt, bare your thighs. Wade through rivers so that your nakedness may be plain to see and your shame exposed. I will take vengeance, I will treat with none of you, says the Holy One of Israel, our ransom, whose name is the LORD of HOSTS. Isa. 47:1+

At times our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person. Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us. Albert Schweitzer
We are told to let our light shine, and if it does, we won't need to tell anybody it does. Lighthouses don't fire cannons to call attention to their shining- they just shine. D.L Moody
Consider the life you live-how do other people perceive your faith? While God doesn't expect you to live in perfection, He desires that you would do all you can to shine forth His light so others will see Him clearly. Paul Chappell
The Christian that is bound by his own horizon, the church that lives simply for itself, is bound to die a spiritual death and sink into stagnancy and corruption. We never can thank God enough for giving us not only a whole Gospel to believe, but a whole world to give it to. A. B. Simpson
The glory of the gospel is that when the church is absolutely different from the world, she invariably attracts it. Martyn Lloyd-Jones
The church is: a conspiracy of love for a dying world, a spy mission into enemy occupied territory ruled by the powers of evil; a prophet from God with the greatest news the world has ever heard, the most life changing and most revolutionary institution that has existed on earth. Peter Kreeft

George Muller, who was known for his strong faith, confided. "The first 3 years after conversion, I neglected the Word of God. Since I began to search it diligently, the blessing has been wonderful. I have read the Bible through one hundred times and always with increasing delight!" John Bunyan, who wrote Pilgrim's Progress, testified, "Read the Bible, and read it again, and do not despair of help to understand something of the will and mind of God, though you think they are fast locked up from you. Neither trouble yourself, though you may not have commentaries and expositions; pray and read, and read and pray; for a little from God is better than a great deal from man."
