So Jesus told them this story. If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do?
Won't he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go and search for the one that was lost until he finds it? And when he has found it, he will joyfully carry it home on his shoulders. When he arrives, he will call together his friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost sheep.' In the same way, there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety nine others who are righteous and haven't strayed away!

Luke 15:3+

Be empathetic to a hurting soul but don't go for a swim in the sea of their despair. Katherine Walden

Nothing humbles and breaks the heart of a sinner like mercy and love. Souls that converse much with sin and wrath, may be much terrified; but souls that converse much with grace and mercy, will be much humbled.

Thomas Brooks

God never withholds from His child that which His love and wisdom call good. God's refusals are always merciful- "severe mercies" at times but mercies all the same. God never denies us our hearts desire except to give us something better

Elizabeth Elliot

Compassion will cure more sins than condemnation.

H W. Beecher

Compassion costs. It is easy enough to argue, criticize and condemn, but redemption is costly, and comfort draws from the deep. Brains can argue, but It takes heart to comfort.

Samuel Chadwick

For in self-giving, if anywhere, we touch a rhythm not only of all creation but of all being. C. S. Lewis

Do not think me mad. It is not to make money that I believe a Christian should live. The noblest thing a man can do is, just humbly to receive, and then go amongst others and give.

David Livingstone

The measure of a life, after all, is not its duration, but its donation.

Corrie Ten Boom

Years ago the Emperor of China had a famous orchestra.
One particular member of the group did not have any real musical talent but had simply weaselled his way into the orchestra as a member. During the concerts he would always pretend to play but loved the attention and the money he was paid. One day the Emperor had an idea. He wanted to have each member of the Orchestra play him a special solo performance. The man whose life was only pretend realized he couldn't escape having to admit his lie and ended up committing suicide. This event coined the phrase we still use today of 'being unwilling to 'face the music'.
