Then Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. There he became acquainted with a Jew named Aquilla, born in Pontus, who had recently arrived from Italy with his wife Priscilla. They had left Italy when Claudius Caesar deported all Jews from Rome. Paul lived and worked with them, for they were tent-makers just as he was. Each Sabbath found Paul in the synagogue, trying to convince the Jews and Greeks alike. Acts 18:1+

Yes, let God be the Judge. Your job today is to be a witness Warren Wiersbe

The Christian needs to walk in peace, so no matter what happens they will be able to bear witness to a watching world. Henry Blackaby

Often our influence in our communities extends to church programs, musicals, or weekly services. While those things can help present the Gospel, God desires for us to personally be influences on the world around us. Spreading the Gospel isn't solely the church's job; it's the job of every Christian. Paul Chappell

People pay attention when they see that God actually changes persons and sets them free. When a new Christian stands up and tells how God has revolutionized his or her life, no one dozes off. When someone is healed or released from a life-controlling bondage, everyone takes notice. Jim Cymbala

I do not know anything that would wake up Chicago better than for every man and woman here who loves Him to begin to talk about Him to their friends, and just to tell them what He has done for you. You have got a circle of friends. Go and tell them of Him. D. L. Moody

The story is told of a college professor who visited the Fiji Islands. Being agnostic, he critically remarked to an elderly chief, "You're a great leader, but it's a pity you've been taken in by those foreign missionaries. They only want to get rich through you. "No one believes the Bible anymore. People are tired of the threadbare story of Christ's dying on a cross for the sins of mankind. They know better now. I'm sorry you've been so foolish as to accept their story." The old chief's eyes flashed as he answered. "See that great rock over there? On it we smashed the heads of our victims. Notice the furnace next to it?
In that oven we formerly roasted the bodies of our enemies. If it hadn't been for those good missionaries and the love of Jesus that changed us from cannibals into Christians, you'd never leave this place alive You'd better thank the Lord for the Gospel. Otherwise, we'd already be feasting on you. If it weren't for the Bible, you'd now be our supper"
