When Job prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his fortunes In fact, the LORD gave him twice as much as before!
Then all his brothers, sisters, and former friends came and feasted with him in his home. And they consoled him and comforted him because of all the trials the LORD had brought against him. And each of them brought him a gift of money and a gold ring. So the Lord blessed Job in the second half of his life even more than in the beginning. For now he had 14,000 sheep, 6000 camels, 1,000 team of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys. He also gave Job seven more sons and three more daughters. Job 42:10+

Most laws condemn the soul and pronounce sentence.
The result of the law of my God is perfect. It condemns but forgives. It restores - more than abundantly - what it takes away. Jim Eliot

By a Carpenter mankind was made, and only by that Carpenter can mankind be remade. Desiderius Erasmus

If God thinks this state of war in the universe a price worth paying for free will then we may take that it is worth paying. C. S. Lewis

Christ took our sins and the sins of the whole world as well as the Father's wrath on his shoulders, and he has drowned them both in himself so that we are thereby reconciled to God and become completely righteous.
Martin Luther

Our sins are debts that none can pay but Christ. It is not our tears, but His blood; it is not our sighs, but His sufferings, that can testify for our sins. Christ must pay all, or we are prisoners forever. Thomas Brooks

If you are ready to partake of grace you have not to atone for your sins--you have merely to accept of the atonement.
All that you want to do is to cry, "God have mercy upon me," and you will receive the blessing. D.L. Moody

Jesus Christ became Incarnate for one purpose, to make a way back to God that man might stand before Him as He was created to do Oswald Chambers

A man told of his experiences in a little town named Flagstaff. The town was to be flooded, as part of a large lake for which a dam was being built. In the months before it was to be flooded, all improvements and repairs in the whole town were stopped. What was the use of painting a house if it were to be covered with water in six months? Why repair anything when the whole village was to be wiped out? So, week by week, the whole town became more and more bedraggled, more gone to seed, more woebegone. Then he added:
"Where there is no faith in the future, there is no power in the present."
