As the Scriptures say, "No one is righteous—not even one. No one is wise, no one is seeking God. All have turned away, all have become useless. No one does good, not a single one. Their talk is foul, like the stench from an open grave. Their tongues are filled with lies, snake venom drips from their lips. Their mouths are filled with cursing and bitterness. They rush to commit murder. Destruction and misery always follow them. They don't know where to find peace. They have no fear of God at all." Obviously the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God.

SABBATH: 26 th . November Sunset: 16.16
SABBATH SCHOOL:	10.30
DIVINE SERVICE:	12.00
Preacher: Pr. Jovan Adamović

Most of the verses written about praise in God's Word were voiced by people faced with crushing heartaches, injustice, treachery, slander, and scores of other difficult situations.
Joni Eareckson Tada
Most of the grand truths of God have to be learned by trouble; they must be burned into us with the hot iron of affliction, otherwise we shall not truly receive them.
C. H. Spurgeon
Poverty and affliction take away the fuel that feeds pride.
Richard Sibbes
Afflictions add to the saints' glory. The more the diamond is cut, the more it sparkles; the heavier the saints' cross is, the heavier will be their crown.
Thomas Watson
As waters are purest when they are in motion, so saints are generally holiest when in affliction.
William secker
The chief pang of most trials is not so much the actual suffering itself as our own spirit of resistance to it.
J. N. Grou
No one and nothing can rob you of your joy unless you choose to drop that joy and pick up offense, resentment, or bitterness in its place.
Katherine Walden
Tribulation does not make people impatient, but proves that they are impatient.
Martin Luther
Enduring faith, strength, and wisdom for trials are best developed before they're needed.
C. B. Larson

There is an old Chinese tale of a woman whose son died. In her grief she went to the local holy man and asked what she must do to make her son alive again. . He told her to go and find a mustard seed from a house that had never known sorrow. In her quest she visited house after house both large and small , but only found tales of grief and sorrow and pain. She told herself, who better than I to minister to these poor people than myself, who has known so much sorrow? In her ministering to others she completely forgot about her quest for the special mustard seed and found she had peace and happiness in her work in caring for others.
