But listen to me, you men of good sense. Far be it from God to do evil or the Almighty to play false! For he pays a man according to his work and sees t hat he gets what his conduct deserves. The truth uis God does no wrong, the Almighty does not pervert justice. Who committed the earth to his keeping?
Who but he established the whole world? If he were to turn his thoughts inwards and recall his life giving spirit, all that lives would perish on the instant, and man return again to dust.. Now Job, if you have the wit, consider this, listen to the words I speak.

Men never do evil so completely and cheerfully as when they do it from religious conviction. Blaise Pascal

The evil Satan causes is only by the permission of God...It would be unbiblical and irrelevant to attribute to Satan (or sinful man) the power to frustrate the designs of God. John Piper Evil is always suggesting some compromise. To listen to it is to remain enslaved. The only way into liberty is to leave the land of evil. G. Campbell Morgan

There is a fundamental sense in which evil is not something that can be made sense of. The essence of evil is that it is something which is absurd, bizarre and irrational. It is the nature of evil to be inexplicable, an enigma and a stupidity. Nigel Wright

The problem of evil is one of the most crucial protests raised by unbelievers against the face of God. James Orr

There is unquestionably a great mystery here as to how a holy God who cannot even look upon evil (Hab. 1:13) can work His will through evil, but that He does is the clear teaching of Scripture. If something could get outside the will of God, it would become a god unto itself and a rival to God. Such can never be the case. God alone is God; there is no other.

Walter Elwell

Many years ago a small Jewish boy asked his father, "Why must we surrender our Jewish faith and start to attend Lutheran services here in Germany' The father replied, "Son, we must abandon our faith so that people will accept us and support our business adventures!" The young lad never got over his disappointment and bitterness. His faith in his father and in his religion were crushed. When the lad left Germany he went to England to study at the British Museum where he formed his philosophies for life. From those intensive investigations he wrote a book that changed the world called, "The Communist Manifesto. From that book one-third of the world fell under the spell of Marxist-Leninist ideology. The name of that little boy was Karl Marx. He influenced billions into a stream that for 70 years ruined, imprisoned and confused many lives. Today, that system of thinking is crumbling, but only after people got a good look at its tragic consequences. The influence of this father's hypocrisy multiplied in infamy. Without godly faith, all of us are subject to distortions in our nerspectives.
