But there was another man,, called Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, who sold a property. With the full knowledge of his wife he kept back part of the purchase money, and part he brought and laid at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, "Ananias, how was it that Satan so possessed your mind that you lied to the Holy Spirit? And kept back part of the price of the land? While it remained, did it not remain yours? When it was turned into money, was it not still at your own disposal? What made you think of doing this thing? You have lied, not to men, but to God." Acts 5:1+

Prayer is a sincere, sensible, affectionate pouring out of the soul to God, through Christ, in the strength and assistance of the Spirit, for such things as God has promised. John Bunyan

The Holy Spirit's desire is that we be focused on Jesus Christ, not Himself. That is the Spirit's chief ministry.

S. Lawson

SABBATH: 28th January Sunset: 16.59

SABBATH SCHOOL; 10.30

DIVINE SERVICE: 12.00

Preacher: Dr. Brian Phillips

Attributes/Actions of deity are ascribed to the Spirit. 1. Omniscience (Isa. 40:13-14; 1 Cor. 2:10-11). 2. Omnipresence (Psm. 139:7-8). 3. Omnipotence (as seen in the Spirit's role in creation [Gen. 1], providence [Psm. 104:30], regeneration, etc.; see especially Zech. 4:6). 4. Eternality (Heb. 9:14). 5. Holiness (used of the Spirit only twice in OT: Psm. 51:11 and Isa. 63:10). Sam Storms

It can be well argued that once the personality of the Spirit is established, the argument about His deity is over. The "Spirit of God" who is said to be omnipresent (Ps 139:7), omniscient (1 Corinthians 2:10-11), and active in the very creation itself (Genesis 1:2; Psalm 104:30) hardly fits the description of some kind of lesser being. But the fact that this Spirit shares the one divine name with the Father and the Son (Matthew 28:19) makes His deity indisputable. James White

Exulting in Christ is evidence of the Spirit's work! The focus of the church is not on the dove but on the cross, and that's the way the Spirit would have it. As J.I. Packer puts it, "The Spirit's message to us is never, 'Look at Me; listen to Me; come to Me; get to know Me,' but always, 'Look at Him, and see His glory; listen to Him, and hear His word; go to Him, and have life; get to know Him, and taste His gift of joy and peace." Kevin De Young

God knows what each one of us is dealing with. He knows our pressures. He knows our conflicts. And He has made a provision for each and every one of them. That provision is Himself in the person of the Holy Spirit, indwelling us and empowering us to respond rightly. Kay Arthur

I once offered to be a listening ear to a gentleman I had never met before. I felt compelled to talk to him and make myself available to discuss his situation. The man was a bit taken back as his mother had just recently become sick. He was unsure of how she would do or how he would find the money to pay for her care. Through the next few months, we became very close friends and he later confided to me that he was considering suicide. I was shocked to find out that this simple gesture of kindness he credited with saving his life. He said that had I not entered his life at that moment, he probably wouldn't be around today. God speaks to us in interesting ways and directs us in ways we might not realize until well after the fact. Scott Jensen
