EVERYONE WELCOME TO JOIN US

For all who are moved by the Spirit of God are sons of God. The Spirit you have received is not a spirit of slavery leading you back into a life, but a Spirit that makes us sons, enabling us to cry, 'Abba! Father!' ~In that cry the Spirit of God joins with our spirit in testifying that we are God's children; and if children, then heirs. Rom. 8:14+

To the believer: Dear brother, honour the Spirit of God as you would honour Jesus Christ if He were present. If Jesus Christ were dwelling in your house you would not ignore Him, you would not go about your business as if He were not there. Do not ignore the presence of the Holy Spirit in your soul. I beseech you, do not live as if you had not heard whether there were any Holy Spirit. To Him pay your constant adorations. Reverence the august guest who has been pleased to make your body His sacred abode. Love Him, obey Him, worship Him. C. H. Spurgeon

Spell this out in capital letters: THE HOLY SPIRIT IS A PERSON. He is not enthusiasm. He is not courage. He is not energy. He is not the personification of all good qualities, like Jack Frost is the personification of cold weather. Actually, the Holy Spirit is not the personification of anything... He has individuality. He is one being and not another. He has will and intelligence. He has hearing. He has knowledge and sympathy and ability to love and see and think. He can hear, speak, desire, grieve and rejoice. He is a Person A. W. Tozer

The Holy Spirit's desire is that we be focused on Jesus Christ, not Himself. That is the Spirit's chief ministry. He is pointing us to Jesus. Bringing Christ more clearly into focus.
When the Holy Spirit becomes an end in Himself, then we have misunderstood His ministry. Steven Lawrence

The conception of the Holy Spirit as a divine influence or power that we are somehow to get hold of and use, leads to self-exaltation and self-sufficiency. R, A. Torrey

To suppose now that this Holy Ghost is not a divine person is for men to dream whilst they seem to be awake. In [Scripture] many instances have been given, whence it is undeniably evident that He is a divine, self-sufficient, selfsubsisting person, together with the Father and the Son equally participant of the divine nature. John Owen

The Johnson and Johnson company once had in their mission statement that employees would "operate with honesty and integrity" Several weeks before a major incident involving Tylenol, the president of Johnson and Johnson sent a memo to all the presidents of divisions in the company asking if they believed in and were abiding by the mission statement. All the responses came back affirmative. Shortly thereafter a problem developed with some Tylenol and within an hour of the Tylenol crisis, the president of the company, knowing it was a $100 million decision, ordered all capsules off the shelves. When reporters asked the president how could so easily and rapidly make such a major decision, his reply was, "I was practicing what we agreed on in our mission statement." It is always easier to do right when you know ahead of time where you stand. So stand on Jesus
