And they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to talk in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were living in Jerusalem devout Jews drawn from every nation under heaven; and at the sound the crowd gathered, all bewildered because each one heard his own language spoken.. They were amazed and in their astonishment exclaimed, "Why, they are all Gallileans are they not, these men who are speaking? How is it then that we hear them, each in his own native language? Acts 2:4+

Since the days of Pentecost, has the whole church ever put aside every other work and waited upon Him for ten days, that the Spirit's power might be manifested? We give too much attention to method and machinery and resources, and too little to the source of power. Hudson Taylor

I have never yet known the Spirit of God to work where the Lord's people were divided. D. L. Moody

SABBATH: 11th March Sunset: 18.15

SABBATH SCHOOL; 10.30

DIVINE SERVICE: 12.00

Preacher: Lil Saunders

Without the Spirit of God we can do nothing. We are as ships without wind or chariots without steeds. Like branches without sap, we are withered. Like coals without fire, we are useless. As an offering without the sacrificial flame, we are unaccepted. C. H. Spurgeon

If the Holy Spirit is at work in our lives, if He is convicting us of sin, if He is giving us faith in Jesus Christ, if He is persuading us that the Bible is God's Word, if He is enabling us to call God Father, if He is making us fruitful in ministry, if He is helping us grow in grace – if the Spirit is doing any of these things at all – then no matter how much we are struggling in the Christian life, we have God's seal of our eternal salvation. P. G.. Ryken

It is not our job to "produce" unity. Unity is "of the Spirit" (Ephesians 4:3). Unity is automatic when the Spirit is in control of everyone's lives. Our job is to "preserve" the unity of the Spirit – to do nothing to disrupt the unity He is producing... We must take care of our relationships and be quick to clean up our offenses. We must make right our wrongs so that the unity of the Spirit is not disrupted.

Eddie Rasnake

I do verily believe that when God shall accomplish [unity], it will be the effect of love, and not the cause of love. It will proceed from love, before it brings forth love. John Owen

The Church is the Body of Christ, and the Spirit is the Spirit of Christ. He fills the Body, directs its movements, controls its members, inspires its wisdom, supplies its strength. He guides into truth, sanctifies its agents, and empowers for witnessing. Samuel Chadwick

British poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge once had a discussion with a man who firmly believed that children should not be given formal religious instruction, but should be free to choose their own religious faith when they reached maturity. Coleridge did not disagree, but later invited the man into his somewhat neglected garden. "Do you call this a garden?" the visitor exclaimed. "There are nothing but weeds here!" "Well, you see," Coleridge replied, "I did not wish to infringe upon the liberty of the garden in any way. I was just giving the garden a chance to express itself."
