When he comes, he will confute the world, and show where wrong and right and judgement lie. . He will convict them of wrong, by their refusal to believe in me: he will convince them that right is on my side, by showing that I go to the Father when I pass from your sight; and he will convince them of Divine Judgement, by showing that the Prince of this world stands condemned. John 16:8+

There is a vast difference between self-conviction and Holy Spirit-conviction. When God convicts, He gets specific with us about our sin... He uses specific Scriptures. And His kindness toward us leads to a hopeful conclusion of repentance and dependence. Self-conviction, and the conviction of the enemy, on the other hand, is wide-ranging, condemning, and defeatist. It leads back to self: "Try harder and do better"... [It will lead us] right back where [we] started - awash in guilt and condemnation. Christine Hoover

Fellowship Lunch

When I regarded God as a tyrant, I thought my sin a trifle, but when O knew Him to be my Father, then I mourned that I could ever have kicked against Him C. H. Spurgeon

If we should express unqualified gratitude to God for the gift of His Son, we should express no less gratitude for the gift of the Spirit who enables us to grasp the gospel of His Son...Unless the Spirit enlightens us, God's thoughts will remain deeply alien to us. D. A. Carson Conviction should actually grow throughout our Christian lives. In fact, one sign of spiritual growth is an increased awareness of our sinfulness.

Jerry Bridges

It's the testimony of almost all saints that as they get closer to God they see more of their ungodliness. It's normal to feel less holy as you become more holy.
Being more aware of sin in your life is usually a sign of the Spirit's sanctifying work, not of His withdrawal.
Kevin De young

When the Holy Spirit of God draws near in true revival, people come under terrible conviction of sin.
The outstanding feature of spiritual awakening has been the profound consciousness of the Presence and holiness of God. Henry Blackaby God commands his people to hope. To be sure, it's only as He gives us hope that He commands us to hope, yet command us to hope He most certainly does. For this reason the mediaeval rabbis used to say that the arch sin is despair. Victor Shepherd

Ingathering

Starts this week. This is a great way to help those less fortunate . Don't forget to sign your permit before going door to door.
