To sum up: be one in thought and feeling, all of you; be full of brotherly affection, kindly and humble-minded. Do not repay wrong with wrong, or abuse with abuse; on the contrary, retaliate with blessing, for a blessing is the inheritance to which you yourselves have been called. "whoever loves life and would see good days must refrain his tongue from evil and his lips from deceit, must turn from wrong and do good, seek peace and pursue it.
For the Lord's eyes are turned towards the righteous , his ears are open to their prayers; but the Lord's face is set against wrong-doers. 1 Pet 3:8+

Let the mind of the Master be the Master of your mind.

Satan always hates Christian fellowship; it is his policy to keep Christians apart. Anything which can divide saints from one another he delights in. He attaches far more importance to godly intercourse than we do.
Since union is strength, he does his best to promote separation. C. H. Spurgeon

The more fractured we are, the greater we become spectacles to the world. The more we are united in love, the more the world sees Christ. Curtis Thomas

Paul's vision of the body of Christ is of a unity which consists in diversity, that is, a unity which is not denied by diversity, but which would be denied by uniformity, a unity which depends on its diversity functioning as such – in a word, the unity of a body, the body of Christ.
James Dunn

Flesh is the old ego that is self-reliant and does not delight to yield to any authority or depend on any mercy. It craves the sensation of self-generated power and loves the praise of men. John Piper

What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy.
It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like. Augustine

Love has reasons which reason cannot understand.
Blaise Pascal
