And now I appeal to the elder of your community, as a fellow-elder and a witness of Christ's sufferings, and also a partaker of the splendour that is to be revealed. Tend that flock of God whose shepherds you are, and do it, not under compulsion, but of your own free will, as God would have it; not out of gain, but out of sheer devotion, not for tyrannizing over those who are allotted to your care, but setting an example to your flock. And then, when the Head Shepherd appears, you will receive for your own the unfading garland of glory.

Preacher: Pat Eastwood

Example is not the main thing in influencing others. It is the only thing.
Albert Schweitzer

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way.
John C. Maxwell

We must truly serve those whom we appear to command; we must bear with their imperfections, correct them with gentleness and patience, and lead them in the way to heaven.
Francois Fénelon

The fear of the Lord helps us recognize our accountability to God for the stewardship of leadership. It motivates us to seek the Lord's wisdom and understanding in difficult situations. And it challenges us to give our all to the Lord by serving those we lead with love and humility.
Paul Chappell

The greatest test of whether the holiness we profess to seek or to attain is truth and life will be whether it produces an increasing humility in us. In man, humility is the one thing needed to allow God's holiness to dwell in him and shine through him. The chief mark of counterfeit holiness is lack of humility. The holiest will be the humblest.
Andrew Murray

You are not mature if you have a high esteem of yourself. He who boasts in himself is but a babe in Christ, if indeed he be in Christ at all. Young Christians may think much of themselves. Growing Christians think themselves nothing. Mature Christians know that they are less than nothing. The more holy we are, the more we mourn our infirmities, and the humbler is our estimate of ourselves.
C. H. Spurgeon

Humility is not thinking less of yourself, but thinking of yourself less.
C. S. Lewis
