Who could have believed what we have heard, and to whom has the power of the LORD been revealed? He grew up before the LORD like a young plant whose roots are in parched ground; he had no beauty, no majesty to draw our eyes, no grace to make us delight in him;his for, disfigured, lost all the likeness of a man, his beauty changed beyond human semblance. He was despised, he shrank from the sight of men, tormented and humbled by suffering; we despised him, we held him of no account, a thing from which men turn away their eyes. Isa. 53:1+

If Jesus Christ be God and died for me, then no sacrifice can be too great for me to make for Him. C. T. Studd
We understand and acknowledge that the Resurrection has placed a glorious crown upon all of Christ's sufferings! A. W. Tozer
Most of the disciples were martyred for their faith. But none of them recanted their affirmation in order to save their lives. Someone surely would have done so if they had even a doubt that the Resurrection was not true. Ajith Fernando
Christ was wrongly accused and executed by Satan's earthly pawns. But His resurrection vindicated Him in the law courts of heaven and enabled Him to take away the devil's right and power as heavenly prosecutor. G. K. Beale
The bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is the crowning proof of Christianity. If the resurrection did not take place, then Christianity is a false religion. If it did take place, then Christ is God and the Christian faith is absolute truth. Henry Morris
The resurrection discloses...that there is an intimate and indissoluble coherence between Jesus' exaltation as the suffering Servant of the Lord and His glory as the Son of Man invested with all power and authority in heaven and on earth. Herman Ridderbos
The resurrection of Christ is the Amen of all His promises. John Boys
Christ's resurrection was the work of the Triune God. The Father raised Him from the dead (Rom. 6:4; Gal. 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:3). So did the Spirit (Rom. 8:11). And the Son took back the life which He had laid down (Jn. 10:18; cf. 2:19, 21; 11:25). For the comfort of believers, these three are and always will be One. William Hendrickson
