And what is faith? Faith gives substance to our hopes, and makes us certain of realities we do not see. It is for their faith that the men of old on record. By faith we perceive that the world was fashioned by the word of God, so that the visible came forth from the invisible. By faith Abel offered a sacrifice greater Cain's, and through faith his goodness was attested, for his offerings had God's approval; and through faith he continued to speak after his death. By faith Enoch was carried away to another life without passing through death; he was not to be found, because God had taken him. For it is the testimony of Scripture that before he was taken he had pleased God, and without faith it is impossible to please him; for anyone who comes to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who search for him. Heb. 11:1+.

As believers, we are cut off from all thought of futures, from making plans in connection with this world. I shall not be ready for Christ to come if I am settled down in Sodom and trying to heap up its dross. Whatever duty the Lord has meant us to be doing, each one should be found at when He comes G. V. Wigram

Christianity removes the attraction of the earth; and this is one way in which it diminishes men's burden. It makes them citizens of another world. Henry Drummond

Worldly pleasures, such as flow from greatness, riches, honours, and sensual gratifications, are infinitely worse than none. David Brainerd

The joy of Christ and the joy of the world cannot consist together. A heart delighted with worldly joy cannot feel the consolations of the Spirit; the one of these destroys the other: but in sanctified trouble, the comforts of God's word are felt and perceived in a most sensible manner. Abraham Wright

Worldliness is any preoccupation with or interest in the temporal system of life that places anything perishable before that which is eternal. John MacArthur

I used to try to reconcile creature comforts and spiritual consolations. We cannot hold the world in one hand and Christ in the other. We cannot serve God and mammon. William Tipstaff

The best means of resisting the devil is, to destroy whatever of the world remains in us, in order to raise for God, upon its ruins, a building all of love. Then shall we begin, in this fleeting life, to love God as we shall love him in eternity. John Wesley

Nothing exposes religion more to the reproach of its enemies than the worldliness and hard-heartedness of its professors Matthew Henry.

A Mothers Secret For Success

When in the morning I washed my children, I prayed that they might be washed by the Saviour's precious blood. When I put on their garments, I prayed that they might be arrayed by the garments of salvation in the robe of God's righteousness. When I gave them food, I prayed that they might be fed with the bread of life. When I started them on the road to school, I prayed that their faith might be as a shining light brighter and brighter to the perfect day. When I put them to sleep, I prayed that they might be enfolded in the Saviour's everlasting arms.
