When Abraham was returning home after his winning a great battle against the kings. Melchizedek met him and blessed him. Then Abraham took a tenth of all he had captured in battle and gave it to Melchizedek The name Melchizedek means, "King of justice," and king of Salem means "king of peace." There is no record of his father or mother or of any of his ancestors—no beginning and no end of his life. He remains a priest forever, resembling the Son Of God. Heb. 7:2+

I hope I shall possess firmness and virtue enough to maintain what I consider the most enviable of all titles, the character of an honest man. George Washington

Honest and courageous people have very little to say about either their courage or their honesty. Hosea Ballou

If I have made an appointment with you, I owe you punctuality, I have no right to throw away your time, if I do my own. Richard Cecil

To learn strong faith is to endure great trials. I have learned my faith by standing firm amid severe testings. George Mueller

I'm not condemning people. God's going to do that. I just want to be honest with people. I just want to tell them the truth. ... People don't want to know what I have to say. They want to know what God has to say. Franklin Graham

What Jesus emphasized in His teaching (in Matthew 5:33-37) was that honest men do not need to resort to oaths; it was not that they should refuse to take an oath if required by some external authority to do so. John Stott

The worse men are, the less they are bound by oaths; the better they are, the less there is need for them. Our Lord does not enjoin the precise terms wherein we are to affirm or deny, but such a constant regard to truth as would render oaths unnecessary. Matthew Henry

Mother Teresa was attending a party full of dignitaries. The guest list included presidents and statesmen from around the world. They came in their crowns and jewels and silks. Mother Teresa wore her ever-present sari, held together by a safety pin. She was engaged in conversation with a nobleman who was intrigued by her work to the poorest of the poor in Calcutta. From his vantage point, her work seemed endless and frustrating. He asked her if she didn't become discouraged by seeing so few successes. "No, I do not become discouraged," Mother Teresa answered. "You see, God has not called me to a ministry of success. He has called me to a ministry of mercy."
