Now all the words of the law are addressed, as we know, to those who are within the pale of the law, so that no one may have anything to say in self-defence, but the whole world may be exposed to the judgements of God. For (again from Scripture) 'no human can be justified in the sight of God' for having kept the law: law brings on the consciousness of sin.

Rom 3:19+

Christian giving is to be marked by self-sacrifice and self-forgetfulness, not by self-congratulation. John Stott

Giving is a "grace" as it demonstrates that God has met your needs and that His grace has inclined you to give to others Sam Storms

Too often we assume that God has increased our income to increase our standard of living, when his stated purpose is to increase our standard of giving Randy Alcorn

The purpose of tithing is to secure not the tithe but the tither, not the gift but the giver, not the possession but the possessor, not your money but you for God. Anon.

I don't give God 10% of my income. He let's me keep 90% of His! Louie Tropic

When we place our contribution in the collection plate, we are not giving to the Lord; we are just taking our hands off that which belongs to Him. Anon

God doesn't need us to give Him our money. He owns everything. Tithing is God's way to grow Christians. Adrian Rogers

We want personal consecration. I have heard that word pronounced purse and all consecration, a most excellent pronunciation. He who loves Jesus consecrates to Him all that he has, and feels it a delight that he may lay anything at the feet of Him who laid down his life for us. Charles Spurgeon

The measure of a life, after all, is not its duration, but its donation. Corrie Ten Boom

Too often our gratitude is dependent upon the circumstances of life. A beautiful hymn was written by Martin Rinkart during the thirty-year war to help us look beyond our circumstances and see the hand of God. Rinkart was a pastor in Saxony, Germany as the turbulent years of the war dragged on. For a time he was the only pastor in his town. His pastoral duties caused him to preside at nearly 4500 burials in 1637 alone. In the context of this sad situation and these unfavourable circumstances he penned the words to Now Thank We All Our God. It is a hymn of unconditional gratitude to God. Now thank we all our God, With Hear t and hands, and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom his world rejoices . Thankful people don't have to have everything going their way to rejoice.
