You should know this, Timothy, that in the last days there will be very difficult times. For people will love only themselves and their money. They will be boastful and proud, scoffing at God, disobedient to their parents, and ungrateful. They will consider nothing sacred. They will be unloving and unforgiving, they will slander others and have no self-control. They will be cruel and hate what is good. They will betray their friends, be reckless, puffed up with pride, and love pleasure rather than God.. They will act religious, but they will reject the power that could make them godly. Stay away from people like that! 2 Tim. 3:1+

The heart is rich when it is content, and it is always content when its desires are fixed on God.

Fellowship Lunch

Place not thy amendment only in increasing thy devotion, but in bettering thy life. It is the damning hypocrisy of this age that it slights all good morality, and spends its zeal in matters of ceremony, and a form of godliness without the power of it.

Thomas Fuller

Prayer - secret, fervent, believing prayer - lies at the root of all personal godliness.

William Carey

True godliness leaves the world convinced beyond a shadow of a doubt, that the only explanation for you, is Jesus Christ to whose eternally unchanging and altogether adequate "I AM!" your heart has learned to say with unshatterable faith, "Thou art!"

Major Ian Thomas

The way to be truly happy is to be truly human, and the way to be truly human is to be truly godly.

J. L. Packer

We cannot properly serve unless we are content. Lacking this virtue will make us prone to view situations from the angle of how will this benefit me? Outward actions and words can appear unselfish or even self-denying, but if they are not founded in contentment, they will be fueled by self-serving motives.

John Bevere

For immediately, as soon as thou givest thyself to God from thy whole heart, and seekest neither this nor that, according to thine own pleasure or will, but settlest thyself wholly in Him, thou shalt find thyself united and at peace; for nothing can afford so sweet a relish, nothing be so delightful, as the good pleasure of the Divine Will.

Thomas á Kempis

We will never be happy until we make God the source of our fulfilment and the answer to our longings. He is the only one who should have power over our souls.

Stormie Omartian

Ingathering

Though fewer than last year, we can still strive to reach last years’ target, so, for the sake of those less fortunate, please try and get out as often as possible and collect. There are plenty of cans and leaflets available if anyone needs more just ask me!
