These are the words of the LORD to me: Man, raise this dirge over the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'This is the word of the Lord GOD: You set the seal on perfection, full of wisdom you were and altogether beautiful. You were in an Eden, a garden of God, adorned with gems of every kind: sardin and chrysolite and jade, topaz, cornelian and green jasper, lapis lazuli, purple garnet and green felspar. Your jingling beads were of gold and the spangles you wore were made for you on the day of your birth. I set you with a towering cherub as guardian, you were on God's holy hill and you walked proudly among stones that flashed with fire. Ezekiel 28:11+

I inquired what iniquity was, and found it to be no substance, but the perversion of the will, turned aside from Thee, O God, the Supreme, towards these lower things. Augustine

This act of self-will on the part of the creature, which constitutes an utter falseness to its true creaturely position, is the only sin that can be conceived as the Fall. C. S. Lewis

There is a fundamental sense in which evil is not something that can be made sense of. The essence of evil is that it is something which is absurd, bizarre and irrational. It is the nature of evil to be inexplicable, an enigma and a stupidity. Nigel Wright

Head knowledge is not evil in and of itself. . The Reformers never tired of stressing the value of Christian education. But this education must be empowered by the Holy Spirit and applied to the heart. Head knowledge is insufficient without the Spirit's application to the inward man. Joel Beeke

Knowledge of facts is important. Knowledge of truth is essential. Yet our Lord's concern goes beyond mere head knowledge. He wants us not only to know the truth but also to obey the truth. He wants us to live the truth, practice the truth, and be conformed to and transformed by that truth. Wayne Mack

I do not believe that any man can preach the gospel who does not preach the law. The law is the needle, and you cannot draw the silken thread of the gospel through a man's heart unless you first send the needle of the law to make way for it. If men do not understand the law, they will not feel that they are sinners. And if they are not consciously sinners, they will never value the sin offering. There is no healing a man till the law has wounded him, no making him alive till the law has slain him. C. H. Spurgeon

The daily experience of Christ's love is linked to our obedience to Him. It is not that His love is conditioned on our obedience. That would be legalism. But our experience of His love is dependent upon our obedience. Jerry Bridges

The law by which God rules us is as dear to Him as the Gospel by which He saves us. William Secker
