King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, ninety feet high and nine feet broad. He had it set up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. Then he sent out a summons to assemble the satraps, prefects, viceroys, counsellors, treasurers, judges, chief constables, and all governors of provinces—for dedication of the image that king Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the Image that king Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Daniel 3:1+

Don't waste your time waiting and longing for large opportunities which may never come. But faithfully handle the little things that are always claiming your attention

DIVINE SERVICE: 12.00

Preacher: Pr. M. Taylor

Commit every particle of your being in all things, down to the smallest details of your life, eagerly and with perfect trust to the unfailing and most sure providence of God.

Jean-Pierre de Caussade

We make choices to trust God, to wait on God, to obey God, to stick with God, to remain faithful when everything in us wants to quit and run.

Pete Cazzero

God has called us to shine, just as much as Daniel was sent into Babylon to shine. Let no one say that he cannot shine because he has not so much influence as some others may have. What God wants you to do is to use the influence you have. Daniel probably did not have much influence down in Babylon at first, but God soon gave him more because he was faithful and used what he had.

Dwight L. Moody

God does not require a man to have one talent, three talents, or five talents. He only requires that a man be faithful with whatever he has been given.

Anon.

The more I think about the human suffering in our world and my desire to offer a healing response, the more I realize how crucial it is not to allow myself to become paralyzed by feelings of impotence and guilt. More important than ever is to be very faithful to my vocation to do well the few things I am called to do and hold on to the joy and peace they bring me. I must resist the temptation to let the forces of darkness pull me into despair and make me one more of their many victims.

Henri J. M. Nouwen

Humility is the only soil in which the graces root; the lack of humility is the sufficient explanation of every defect and failure. Humility is not so much a grace or virtue along with others; it is the root of all, because it alone takes the right attitude before God, and allows Him as God to do all.

Andrew Murray

Ingathering

With only one day to go, every effort you make to go and collect will be appreciated. Please let me have the tins, permits etc. back after the end of the campaign and if possible by next Sabbath at the latest. Thank you
