When all things began, the Word already was. The Word dwelt with God, and what God was, the Word was The Word, then, was with God at the beginning, and through him all things came to be; no single thing was created without him.

God will look to every soul like its first love because He is its first love. C. S. Lewis

Love is the greatest thing that God can give us, for himself is love; and it is the greatest thing we can give to God, for it will also give ourselves, and carry with it all that is ours. The apostle calls it the bond of perfection; it is the old, the new, and the great commandment, and all the commandments, for it is the fulfilling of the law. It does the work of all the other graces without any instrument but its own immediate virtue.
Jeremy Taylor

In Jesus and for Him, enemies and friends alike are to be loved. Thomas á Kempis

This is Divine love - a love that is willing to lay down its life in order to save the one it loves. Zac Poonen

If we verily bear the cross we shall be neither controlled nor influenced by soulical affection but shall be fit to love in the power of the Holy Spirit. Even so did the Lord Jesus love His family while on earth. Watchman Nee

When God spoke to Moses and others in the Old Testament, those events were encounters with God. An encounter with Jesus was an encounter with God for the disciples. In the same way an encounter with the Holy Spirit is an encounter with God for you. Henry Blackaby

God commands us to be filled with the Spirit, and if we are not filled, it is because we are living beneath our privileges.
D. L. Moody

George Matheson was only fifteen when he was told that he was losing his eyesight. Instead of giving up, he continued with his plans to enrol in the University of Glasgow, and his determination lead to his graduation at age nineteen. But as he pursued graduate studies in theology for Christian ministry, he finally lost his sight. His sisters joined ranks beside him, learning Greek and Hebrew to assist him in his studies. He pressed faithfully on.. But his spirit collapsed when his fiancée, unwilling to be married to a blind man, broke their engagement and returned his ring. He never married, and the pain of that rejection never totally left him. Years later, his sister came to him announcing her engagement. He rejoiced with her, but his mind went back to his own heartache. He consoled himself in thinking of God's love which is never limited, never conditional, never withdrawn, and never uncertain. Out of this experience he wrote the hymn, O Love That Will Not Let Me Go.
