Now there were living in Jerusalem devout Jews drawn from every nation under heaven; and at this sound the crowds gathered, all bewildered because each one heard his own language spoken. They were amazed and in their astonishment exclaimed, "Why, they are all Galileans,, are they not, these men who are speaking? How is it then that we hear them,, each of us in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, ; inhabitants of Mesopotamia, of Judea and Cappadocia, of Pontus and Asia, of Phrygia and Pamphylia, of Egypt and the district os Libya around Cyrene; visitors from Rome, both Jew s and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs we hear them telling in our own tongues the great things God has done.. Acts. 2:5+

The Holy Ghost does not flow through methods, but through men. He does not come on machinery, but on men. He does not anoint plans, but men, men of prayer. E. M. Bounds

The biblical tongues of the first century were known languages which communicated the wonders of God publicly to unbelievers. They served as an authenticating sign that the gospel message was true. Their function far transcended a personal and devotional use on the part of the speaker. John Napier

A church in the land without the Spirit is rather a curse than a blessing. If you have not the Spirit of God, Christian worker, remember that you stand in somebody else's way; you are a fruitless tree standing where a fruitful tree might grow. Charles Spurgeon

Since the days of Pentecost, has the whole church ever put aside every other work and waited upon Him for ten days, that the Spirit's power might be manifested? We give too much attention to method and machinery and resources, and too little to the source of power. Hudson Taylor

Significantly, spiritual gifts are not the sign of being Spirit-filled. Sanctification is. As believers are sanctified—coming under the Spirit's control—they are equipped to use their spiritual gifts effectively for the purpose of serving others. John MacArthur

Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can and as long as you can. John Wesley

Our Lord has written the promise of the resurrection, not in books alone but in every leaf in springtime. Martin Luther

C.S. Lewis said that when he first became a Christian, he had trouble with church gatherings. "I thought that I could do it on my own by retiring to my rooms and reading theology, and I wouldn't go to churches anymore." He often found the sermons dull, and disliked organ music, which he described as "one long roar." He had contempt for church hymns, which he "considered fifth rate poems set to sixth rate music." As his faith matured, he grew to value gathering with other Christians to worship. As his ego diminished, he realized that these hymns were being sung with enthusiasm by elderly saints, and then he realized that he was unworthy to clean their boots. He said, "Going to church gets you out of your solitary conceit." This is the main problem; conceit, ego, and pride
