Some people came from Judea and started teaching the Lord's followers that they could not be saved unless they were circumcised as Moses had taught. This caused trouble, and Paul and Barnabas argued with them about this teaching. So it was decided to send Paul and Barnabas together with a few others to Jerusalem to discuss this problem with the apostles and the church leaders.. The men who were sent by the church went through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling how the Gentiles had turned to God, This news made the Lord's followers very happy. When the men arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, including the apostles and the leaders. Acts. 15:1+

A Pharisee is hard on others and easy on himself, but a spiritual man is easy on others and hard on himself.

A. W. Tozer

We may judge doctrine and behaviour by the objective standards of right and wrong that are given to us in Scripture. What we may not do though, is judge a person's heart and motives.

Tim Challies

Legalism makes believers think that God accepts them on the basis of what they do. Licentiousness makes believers think that God does not care what they do. Both errors have terrible spiritual consequences.

Brian Chappell

You couldn't if you tried! Salvation is a free gift. You simply lay hold of what Christ has provided. Period. And yet the heretical doctrine of works goes on all around the world and always will. It is effective because the pride of men and women is so strong. We simply have to do something in order to feel right about it. It just doesn't make good humanistic sense to get something valuable for nothing.

Charles Swindoll

Men take their principles by inheritance, and defend them as they would their estates, because they are born heirs to them.

Isaac Watts

Legalists tend to fear ambiguity. The legalist's favourite colours are black and white. They are uncomfortable with biblical silence and insist on speaking when the Word of God does not. They feel something of a "calling" to fill in the gaps left by Scriptural silence or to make specific and often detailed applications that God, in the Bible, chose not to make.

Sam Storms

Years ago the communist government in China commissioned an author to write a biography of Hudson Taylor with the purpose of distorting the facts and presenting him in a bad light. They wanted to discredit the name of this consecrated missionary. As the author was doing his research, he was increasingly impressed by Taylor's saintly character and godly life, and he found it extremely difficult to carry out his assigned task with a clear conscience. Eventually, at the risk of losing his life, he laid aside his pen, renounced his atheism, and received Jesus as his personal Saviour. Whether we realize it or not. our example leaves an impression on others.
