Three days after Festus had become governor, he went from Caesarea to Jerusalem. There the chief priests and some Jewish leaders told him about their charges against Paul. They also asked Festus if he would be willing to bring Paul to Jerusalem. They begged him to do this because they were planning to attack and kill Paul on the way. "but Festus told them, Paul will be kept in Caesarea, and I am soon going there myself. If Paul has done anything wrong let your leaders fo with me and bring charges against him there." Festus stayed in Jerusalem for eight or ten more days before going to Caesarea. Then the next day he took his place as judge and had Paul brought into the court Acts 25:1+

If we cannot believe God when circumstances seem be against us, we do not believe Him at all. Charles Spurgeon

Opposition is not only evidence that God is blessing, but it is also an opportunity for us to grow. Warren Wiersbe Adversity is not simply a tool. It is God's most effective tool for the advancement of our spiritual lives. The circumstances and events that we see as setbacks are oftentimes the very things that launch us into periods of intense spiritual growth. Once we begin to understand this, and accept it as a spiritual fact of life, adversity becomes easier to bear. Charles Stanley

If we do anything to further the kingdom of God, we may expect to find what Christ found on that road - abuse, indifference, injustice, misunderstanding, trouble of some kind.
Take it. Why not? To that you were called. In Latin America someone who feels sorry for himself is said to look like a donkey in a downpour. If we think of the glorious fact that we are on the same path with Jesus, we might see a rainbow.
Elizabeth Elliot

A man with no sense of religious duty is he whom the Scriptures describe in such terse but terrific language, as living "without God in the world." Such a man is out of his proper being, out of the circle of all his duties, out of the circle of all his happiness, and away, far, far away, from the purposes of his creation. Daniel Webster

The religion of Jesus has probably always suffered more from those who have misunderstood than from those who have opposed it. Henry Drummond

In July, 2011 reports of a discovery in poverty-filled South India crossed the news wire. The vaults of the Padmanabhaswamy temple were opened after 130 years. Temple records mention the treasure, and its existence was known to locals. However, no one knew its true size. The preliminary inventory of the temple treasure: over a ton of gold, sacks of diamonds and precious stones; gold necklaces over three metres long and weighing over 2.5 kilograms, gold crowns, thousands of pieces of antique jewellery, idols, and artefacts studded with diamonds and emeralds. Initial estimates placed the value of the treasure at $22 billion USD, Antique collectors' valuation of the find, to be confirmed by the Supreme Court, could be over $100 billion. This staggering treasure had been basically forgotten, while children in the region starved to death Our King has far greater treasures and is willing to share them with us. What a blessing!
