As a prisoner of the Lord, I beg you to live in a way that is worthy of the people. God has chosen to be His own. Always be humble and gentle. Patiently put up with each other. Try your best to let God's Spirit keep your hearts united. Do this by living at peace. All of you are part of the same body. There is only one Spirit of God just as you were given one hope when you were chosen to be God's people. We have only one Lord, one faith, one baptism. There is one God who is father of all people. Not only is God above all others, but He works by using all of us, and He lives in all of us. Eph. 4:1+

. It is not our job to "produce" unity. Unity is "of the Spirit" (Ephesians 4:3). Unity is automatic when the Spirit is in control of everyone's lives. Our job is to "preserve" the unity of the Spirit – to do nothing to disrupt the unity He is producing... We must take care of our relationships and be quick to clean up our offenses. We must make right our wrongs so that the unity of the Spirit is not disrupted. Eddie Rasnake

I have never yet known the Spirit of God to work where the Lord's people were divided. D. L. Moody

Why do we in the church oftentimes only see our superficial differences? Why can't we see each other as we are, ultimately alike – redeemed by the blood, united with Christ, loved by God, adopted into the same family? Randy Smith

Has it ever occurred to you that one hundred pianos all tuned to the same fork are automatically tuned to each other? They are of one accord by being tuned, not to each other, but to another standard to which each one must individually bow. So one hundred worshipers [meeting] together, each one looking away to Christ, are in heart nearer to each other than they could possibly be, were they to become 'unity' conscious and turn their eyes away from God to strive for closer fellowship. Social religion is perfected when private religion is purified. A. W. Tozer
Satan always hates Christian fellowship; it is his policy to keep Christians apart. Anything which can divide saints from one another he delights in. He attaches far more importance to godly intercourse than we do. Since union is strength, he does his best to promote separation. C.H. Spurgeon
The more fractured we are, the greater we become spectacles to the world. The more we are united in love, the more the world sees Christ. Curtis Thomas
I do verily believe that when God shall accomplish [unity], it will be the effect of love, and not the cause of love. It will proceed from love, before it brings forth love. John Owen
Believers all belong to the same Lord, and are thus one with each other. Therefore anything that denies our oneness with each other denies our oneness with Him. John MacArthur
Believers are never told to become one; we already are one and are expected to act like it. Joni Eareckson Tada

There may be some licence taken with the meanings, but the general outcome is interesting.
ADAM = MAN SETH = APPOINTED ENOSH = MORTAL KENAN = SORROW MAHALALEL = THE BLESSED GOD JARED = SHALL COME DOWN ENOCH = TEACHING METHUSELAH = HIS DEATH SHALL BRING LAMECH = THE DESPAIRING NOAH = COMFORT AND REST
In other words – : MAN - APPOINTED MORTAL SORROW, THE BLESSED GOD SHALL COME DOWN TEACHING, HIS DEATH SHALL BRING THE DESPAIRING COMFORT AND REST.
