The body of Christ has many different parts, just as any other body does. Some of us are Jews, and others are Gentiles Some of us are slaves, and others are free. But God's Spirit baptized each of us and made us part of the body of Christ. Now we each drink from the same Spirit. Our bodies don't just have one part. They have many parts. Suppose the foot says, "I'm not a hand, so I'm not part of the body." Wouldn't the foot still belong to the body? Or suppose the ear says, "I'm not the eye, and so I'm not part of the body." Wouldn't the ear still be part of the body? If our bodies were only an eye we couldn't hear a thing. And if they were only an ear we couldn't smell a thing. But God has put all the parts of our bodies together in the way that He decided was best.
1 Cor. 12:12+

Snowflakes are one of nature's most fragile things, but just look what they can do when they stick together.

Where the Spirit of God is, there is also singing. The early church was characterized by its singing; so also in every generation where there is renewal by the Spirit a new hymnody breaks forth. If most such songs do not have staying power, some of them do, and these become the treasure-trove of our ongoing teaching and admonishing of one another, as well as of our constantly turning to God the Father and God the Son and offering praise by inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

SABBATH: 17 th . November		Sunset:: 16.26
SABBATH SCHOOL:		10.30
DIVINE SERVICE:		12.00
Preacher: Pr. Paul Lockham

If the Lord were to pour out revival upon the Body in the condition that we are in now, our current lack of unity would hinder us from being an adequate 'vessel' to hold and maintain the revival that He would pour out...I have changed my priority in prayer to pray for unity first, then revival. Unity in the Body is a direct answer to Jesus' prayer in John 17, and a unified Body provides a proper 'vessel" into which revival can be poured out.
Joy Dawson
There is but one God, and they that serve him should be one. There is nothing that would render the true religion more lovely, or make more proselytes to it, than to see the professors of it tied together with the heart strings of love. If God be one, let all that profess him be of one mind, and one heart, and thus fulfil Christ's prayer, "that they all may be one."
Thomas Watson
Satan always hates Christian fellowship; it is his policy to keep Christians apart. Anything which can divide saints from one another he delights in. He attaches far more importance to godly intercourse than we do. Since union is strength, he does his best to promote separation.
Charles Spurgeon
If added power attends the united prayer of two or three, what mighty triumphs there will be when hundreds of thousands of consistent members of the Church are with one accord day by day making intercession for the extension of Christ's Kingdom.
John R. Mott
Be united with other Christians. A wall with loose bricks is not good. The bricks must be cemented together.
Corrie Ten Boom

When the revival of the 1850's reached Chicago, a young shoe salesman went to the superintendent of the Plymouth Congregational Church, and asked if he might teach Sunday School. The superintendent said, "I am sorry, young fellow. I have sixteen teachers too many, but I will put you on the waiting list." The young man insisted: "I want to do something just now." "Well, start a class." "How do I start a class?" "Get some boys off the street, but don't bring them here. Take them out into the country and after a month you will have control of them, so bring them in. They will be your class." He took them to a beach on Lake Michigan and he taught them Bible verses and Bible games; then he took them to the Plymouth Congregational Church. The name of the young man was Dwight Lyman Moody, and that was the beginning of his ministry that lasted forty years.
