And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for the space of about half-an-hour. And I saw the seven angels who stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth; and there were voices and thunderings, and lightnings and an earthquake.
Rev. 8:1+

The answer of our prayers is secured by the fact that in rejecting them God would in a certain sense deny His own nature. John Calvin

It was pride that changed angels into devils; it is humility that makes men as angels. Augustine

Without free will, how shall God judge the world? Without grace, how shall God save the world? Anon.

God's truth judges created things out of love, and Satan's truth judges them out of envy and hatred.
Dietrich Bonhoeffer

God's mercy with a sinner is only equalled and perhaps outmatched by His patience with the saints Alan Redpath

I think Christians fail so often to get answers to their prayers because they do not wait long enough on God. E.M. Bounds

The best prayers have often more groans than words.
John Bunyan

The saints are God's jewels, highly esteemed by and dear to him; they are a royal diadem in his hand. Matthew Henry

I hope someday that God can explain some of the delays to us……but I'm convinced that one of the things He is teaching me, and all of us, is perseverance. In this day and age of everything being "instant" – we can forget what it means to persevere. Perseverance is one of the ways of God that are found all through the Word. It's an important character trait for us to have in our walk with the Lord. Being willing to persevere in prayer, and in other ways, is often a test for us.
Sally McClung

A young girl once consulted with her minister. "I cannot stick it out any longer. I am the only Christian in the factory where I work. I get nothing but taunts and sneers. It is more than I can stand. I am going to resign." "Will you tell me," asked the minister, "where lights are placed?" "What has that to do with it?" the young Christian asked him rather bluntly. "Never mind," the minister replied. "Answer my question: Where are lights placed?" "I suppose in dark places," she replied. "Yes, and that is why you have been put in that factory where there is such spiritual darkness and where there is no other Christian to shine for the Lord." The young Christian realized for the first time the opportunity that was hers. She felt she could not fail God by allowing her light to go out. She went back to the factory with renewed determination to let her light shine in that dark corner. Before long, she was the means of leading nine other girls to the Light
