Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of the Lord. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself..

What ever disunites man from God, also disunites man from man.

Edmund Burke

I have never yet known the Spirit of God to work where the Lord's people were divided.

D. L. Moody

Believers are never told to become one; we already are one and are expected to act like it.

Joni Earekson Tada

Selfishness is that detestable vice which no one will forgive in others, and no one is without himself.

Henry W. Beecher

As selfishness and complaint pervert the mind, so love with its joy clears and sharpens the vision.

Helen Keller

If I live for self, I can only live for one; if I live for others, I can live for millions

Tony Campolo tells a story of a homeless man who offered to share his coffee with Tony. Tony said the coffee must have been swimming with bacteria but he took a drink. Then he said “that’s very generous of you to share your coffee with me.” And the man said “I believe that when God gives you something extra special you should share it”.
