There was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the Italian ban, a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day and angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it Lord?" And he said unto him, "Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God." Acts 10:1+

Often times God demonstrates His faithfulness in adversity by providing for us what we need to survive. He does not change our painful circumstances. He sustains us through them. Charles Stanley
No matter what our circumstance, we can find a reason to be thankful. David Jeremiah

God is more interested in your future and your relationships than you are. Billy Graham
People who have good relationships at home are more effective in the marketplace. Zig Ziglar
Aloneness can lead to loneliness. God's preventative for loneliness is intimacy - meaningful, open, sharing relationships with one another. In Christ we have the capacity for the fulfilling sense of belonging which comes from intimate fellowship with God and with other believers. Neil T. Anderson
Four of the Ten Commandments deal with our relationship to God while the other six deal with our relationships with people. But all ten are about relationships. Rick Warren
Okay, here's how to do relationships - be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, just as God, in Christ, also has forgiven you. Chip Ingram
One who gains strength by overcoming obstacles possesses the only strength which can overcome adversity. Albert Schweitzer
Nine-tenths of the difficulties are overcome when our hearts are ready to do the Lord's will, whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His will is. George Mueller
He that overcometh shall inherit all things. God has no poor children. D. L.. Moody
We have little control over the circumstances of life. We can't control the weather or the economy, and we can't control what other people say about or do to us. There is only one area where we have control--we can rule the kingdom inside. The heart of every problem is the problem in the heart. Warren Wiersbe

For many years Dr. Frances Schaeffer and his wife Edith ran a house of Christian hospitality and study in Switzerland called L'Abri. They opened their hearts and homes to hundreds of people seeking Biblical answers to life's challenges. In her book What is a Family? Edith offers this counsel: "Every Christian home is meant to have a door that swings open."
