But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: if any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not pt her away. And the woman who hath a husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; else were your children unclean; but now they are holy/.
1 Cor. 7:12+

Living in a time when the family is under attack, the real danger is idolizing the family. We hear "the family first" and may be tempted to say "amen." But Jesus will have none of this. When the family is first, God plays second fiddle.

SABBATH SCHOOL; 10.30

DIVINE SERVICE; 12.00

Preacher: Adriana Fodor

"The worst sin is prayerlessness." We usually think of murder, adultery, or theft as among the worst. But the root of all sin is self-sufficiency, independence from God. When we fail to wait prayerfully for God's guidance and strength, we are saying, with our actions if not our lips, that we do not need Him. How much of our service is characterized by "going it alone?"
P. T. Forsyth

It is foolish for humans, including God's people, to imagine that they are self-sufficient. God does not help those who help themselves. Rather, He helps those who cannot help themselves, know it, and rely on Him.
Dean Ulrich

In God's divine design, every "biological family" when converted to Christ becomes the "church in miniature"... And as these families mature and reflect the fullness of Christ, they become the strong building blocks of the church. In this sense, mature families automatically create mature churches.
Gene Getz

It is difficult to see how Christianity can have a positive effect on society if it cannot transform its own homes.
John MacArthur

Partial obedience is really only disobedience made to look acceptable.
Bill Arnold

Obedience is the only reality. It is faith visible, faith acting, and faith manifest. It is the test of real discipleship among the Lord's people.
J. C. Ryle

The Bible recognizes no faith that does not lead to obedience, nor does it recognize any obedience that does not spring from faith. The two are at opposite sides of the same coin
A. W. Tozer

A family who moved into a new neighbourhood had a late start one morning. As a result their six-year-old missed her school bus. Though it would make him late for work her father agreed to take her to school if she gave him directions. After 20 minutes of going in circles they finally arrived at the school, which turned out to be only a few blocks away from where they lived. Angrily, her dad asked why she drove him all over the place when the school was so close to home. "We went the way the school bus does," she said. "That's the only way I know."
