And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and do all His commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come upon thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God. Deut. 28:1+

I have always held firmly to the thought that each one of us can do a little to bring some portion of misery to an end. Albert Schweitzer

How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in your life you will have been all of these. G. W. Carver

SABBATH: 20th Jul Sunset: 21.27

SABBATH SCHOOL; 10.30

DIVINE SERVICE; 12.00
Preacher: Adriana Fodor

A man may lose the good things of this life against his will; but if he loses the eternal blessings, he does so with his own consent. Augustine

To love God is the greatest of virtues; to be loved by God is the greatest of blessings. Anon.

When you focus on being a blessing, God makes sure that you are always blessed in abundance. Joel Osteen

All the blessings we enjoy are Divine deposits, committed to our trust on this condition, that they should be dispensed for the benefit of our neighbours. John Calvin

For we must share, if we would keep, that blessing from above; Ceasing to give, we cease to have; such is the law of love. R.C. Trench

The "least of my brethren" are the hungry and the lonely, not only for food, but for the Word of God; the thirsty and the ignorant not only for water, but also for knowledge, peace, truth, justice and love; the naked and the unloved, not only for clothes but also for human dignity; the unwanted; the unborn child; the racially discriminated against; the homeless and abandoned, not only for a shelter made of bricks, but for a heart that understands, that covers, that loves; the sick, the dying destitutes, and the captives, not only in body, but also in mind and spirit; all those who have lost all hope and faith in life; the alcoholics and dying addicts and all those who have lost God (for them God was but God is) and who have lost all hope in the power of the Spirit. Mother Teresa

. A wealthy man before leaving on an extended vacation said to a contractor, "While I am away, I want you to build me a fine new home according to these plans. Be sure you work with extreme care, and use the best of everything. Tell me the cost as soon as you have it and I'll send you a check." During the process of construction the contractor discovered many opportunities to substitute inferior materials; he put in his own pocket the money he saved. His employer would never know the difference, and he himself would profit. But he soon regretted his dishonesty, for the wealthy man upon his return inspected the finished home and said: "You have built it exactly as I wanted it, and I'm sure that you used the best of everything in its construction. Now, in appreciation for your long years of service to me, I am giving you this new home for your very own. Here's the deed!" Church, we are building for eternity. Do we build with inferior materials or do we build with choice materials on the foundation of Christ? Don't ever forget, the house we will have later on depends on the material we are using now.
