Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake.. Wherefore should the heathen say, where is now their God? But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he has pleased Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not; they have hands, but they handle not ;feet have they but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them. Ps.115:1+

Man's mind is like a store of idolatry and superstition; so much so that if a man believes his own mind it is certain that he will forsake God and forge some idol in his own brain.
John Calvin

There is nothing so abominable in the eyes of God and of men as idolatry, whereby men render to the creature that honour which is due only to the Creator
Blaise Pascal

The greatest form of praise is the sound of consecrated feet seeking out the lost and helpless.
		Billy Graham
The Psalmists in telling everyone to praise God are doing what all men do when they speak of what they care about.
		C. S Lewis
The highest form of worship is the worship of unselfish Christian service.
		Billy Graham
I never knew how to worship until I knew how to love.
		Henry Ward Beecher
Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exists because worship doesn't.
		John Piper
The “least of my brethren” are the hungry and the lonely, not only for food, but for the Word of God; the thirsty and the ignorant not only for water, but also for knowledge, peace, truth, justice and love; the naked and the unloved, not only for clothes but also for human dignity; the unwanted; the unborn child; the racially discriminated against; the homeless and abandoned, not only for a shelter made of bricks, but for a heart that understands, that covers, that loves; the sick, the dying destitutes, and the captives, not only in body, but also in mind and spirit; all those who have lost all hope and faith in life; the alcoholics and dying addicts and all those who have lost God (for them God was but God is) and who have lost all hope in the power of the Spirit
		Mother Teresa

The first beacon of the Eddystone Lighthouse off the coast of Plymouth was placed there over 250 years ago to warn ships of the dangerous reefs. Winstanley, the architect who built it, was so confident of it's strength that he had written on the cornerstone "Blow, O ye winds! Rise, O ocean waves! Break forth ye elements and try my work!" They were foolish words. Less than 3 years later a violent storm destroyed the lighthouse along with Winstanley and others who were doing repairs.. In 1756 John Smeaton, rebuilt it. He found a new site and dug down deep into the solid rock. He was a Christian, and on the cornerstone he wrote the words, "Except the Lord build the house it's builders labour in vain". Since then it has stood every test and it stands there today. It was built on the rock.
